TALKING IT ALL OVER

Many Manufacturers in Washington

ARE DISCUSSING THE OUTLOOK

East Liverpool Sent the Largest Delegation, But Almost All the Other Pottery Towns are Represented—The Convention Ends Tomorrow.

The East Liverpool pottery manufacturers and their friends are having a big time in Washington. A special from the capital today says:

The first session of the nineteenth annual convention of the United States Potters' association was held at the Arlington Hotel today. There were about 50 members of the association present, including William Burgess, of Trenton, N. J., president; Charles W. Franzheim, of Wheeling, W. Va., first vice president; B. C. Simms, of East Liverpool, third vice president; J. H. Goodwin, of East Liverpool, treasurer, and Alfred Day, of Steubenville, O., secretary.

President Burgess, in his annual address, spoke of the outlook for the manufacturing potters as the most encouraging in the history of the industry. Referring to the action of congress in its last session in reducing the customs duties on plain white pottery from 55 per cent to 30, and on decorated ware from 60 to 35 per cent, he said that never before had the pottery industry received such a blow, and never before had it been so outrageously treated.

The time of the association this morning was devoted largely to discussing the prospects of future legislation in behalf of the potting industry, and the chances of having the new duty placed where the late tariff managers promised. Much of the deliberations of the convention is private business. All the East Liverpool members of the party are well, and are enjoying their trip to the best of their ability. Three days is the allotted life of the convention.

On the Double Quick.

As Company E did not drill last night two of the most prominent young men connected with that organization took their partners for a sleigh ride in the country. They evidently had exciting adventures as their friends tell amusing stories today. One couple got lost in a snow drift while the other drove the horse into an open field wandered around almost an hour and the horse finally got weary and dumped both soldier and lady into the snow. The young militiamen used a new variety of double quick time in drilling across the field after the outfit, but finally captured the enemy, and spent another half hour hunting the partner of his woes. As soon as daylight arrived they managed to find their way home just as the relief was being sent out.

Brought Out the Laddies.

What might have been a disastrous fire was prevented last night by the prompt movement of the department. It was a few minutes after 10 o'clock when fire was discovered in the basement of the Potters' National bank, and a telephone message was sent from the Thompson House. An alarm was sounded on the big bell, and the department was out in no time, making a quick run. Chief Adam reached the scene of action with a few strides, and finding that there was no other way into the basement, knocked open the door. Then he found that the fire was nothing more serious than a lot of blazing gas jets, which threatened to set fire to the roof, and a stove which was heated by the gas was also a source of danger. These were turned down and the building was saved.

A Good Year.

Said one of the best known and most successful salesmen of the city last night:

"I look for a good year in the potteries, because the people know just where they stand. Last year there was not one buyer in ten who could imagine his position, because he had never been through any trouble of that kind, and did not know how it was all going to end. Now their stocks are pretty well cleared up, and they know about what their trade demands, or so near it that they can buy with some degree of safety. Prices are not so good as in former years, but I think the volume of trade will be good."

The Way to Move Is to Move.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—I hear so much about the public building that I feel called upon to urge that something is done by the city. Of that $75,000 some must be paid for a site, and I would suggest that the city raise a sum to be applied to the appropriation. If the city could have the site paid for, that would mean so much more money for the building, which in turn would mean a better building. Again, there are reasons for believing that congress would feel more like helping the bill along if we manifested a disposition to help ourselves.

X. Y. Z.

Providing for Fifty People.

The township trustees are at present providing for about 50 persons, an enormous number as compared with that of a month ago. Trustee Lloyd endeavored, as stated in the News Review a few days ago, to put some of the indigent to work on the streets under Commissioner Welch, but the commissioner could not take them, stating that he had plenty of men and little work. The trustees are providing only those whom they are compelled to look after, and will put all men to work as fast as they find jobs for them.

Chief Gill For Sheriff.

Chief Charley Gill has publicly announced his candidacy for sheriff, and his friends have already commenced to work in his favor. He is a competent, trustworthy officer, one who knows the meaning of the word duty, and was never known to swerve a hair's breadth from the path mapped out. He possesses the business ability required to make his stay in the office a success, and will never be found wanting when weighed in the balance. In the race Chief Gill is several lengths ahead of his competitors.

Preparing to Purchase.

The crockery and glass jobbers of the country will meet in New York, Feb. 6, and it is expected that East Liverpool will benefit thereby. Some will come to this city on their way east, and others will remain in Pittsburgh. As they will be prepared to buy, some of the travelers are already preparing for the campaign. They will go to Pittsburgh, and meet jobbers who come to that city with a full line of ware, while the potteries can take care of those who come direct to East Liverpool.

Too Many for Good Business.

A typical Wandering Willie dropped into the News Review office this morning, and after receiving the bundle of old papers for which he asked, manifested a disposition to talk. He said the number of tramps were thicker in this section than any place he has struck on his long journey from New Orleans to New York. As he expressed it "there are too many for good business." The man has tramped almost all his life, and his appearance did not belie his words.

The Missionary Meeting.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary branch of the Pittsburgh conference of the Methodist Protestant church will hold a convention in this city Thursday morning, afternoon and evening at the church. Mrs. Reverend Calhoner, a returned Japanese missionary, will appear in Japanese costume at the evening meeting and deliver an address. Other prominent speakers will be present. The public is cordially invited; especially members of missionary societies.

Domestic Infelicity.

A family jar on Second street last night was heard by more than one pedestrian who stopped and listened. A young man, who was the steady company of one of the girls, but whose experience in jail several times is well known, was the cause of the row, in which, judging from the voices pitched in high notes, the family was taking a hand. It finally resulted in a hand to hand struggle between the two sisters, but no dead or injured are reported.

Postponed the Case.

The suit of Clay Gould against the East Liverpool Pottery company was postponed in the court of Squire Travis this morning because Monroe Patterson was prevented by the severe illness of his wife from being in attendance. Gould wants the company to pay him $300 for various receipts used in the manufacture of ware. The case will be heard Jan. 30.

Their Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union pottery was held last night, and the business usually transacted at such meetings was passed through. The old officers were again given their places, and the affairs of the company found to be in good condition.

Left the City.

Mrs. M. Harrison moved this morning from Jackson square, where she has been living, to East Palestine. No new families have come to the city for several days.

GONE FOR A LONG TIME

So Arthur Beach Wants a Divorce.

ASKS FOR HER MAIDEN NAME

Because He Does Not Want Her to Wear the Name Given Her When They Were Married—New Suits Involving Some Money.

Special to the News Review.

LISBON, Jan. 16.—A peculiar divorce suit was filed in court this morning by Arthur Beach, of East Liverpool. He says he was married in 1891, and alleges that for three years his wife has been wilfully absent from home. He asks the court to give him a divorce, and wants the woman's maiden name returned to her, Georgiana Pickal. It frequently happens that the female part of a divorce suit asks the court to give back a maiden name, but this is the first instance for years, perhaps the first on record in the county, where a man desires to prevent his wife from using his name.

H. H. Smith & Son brought suit today against James Agnew, claiming $911.04. The amount is the invoice price of a tailoring establishment which changed hands last month, no part of which has ever been paid.

Charles McGregor, of Wellsville, asked the court today to compel J. J. McDewitt to pay him $50, the balance due on the purchase of a house. He received an adverse decision in the court of the mayor of Wellsville not long ago, and now wants the decision changed.

The sale of property because of delinquency caused no end of excitement about the court house yesterday, and East Liverpool lead in prices. Some persons arranged to buy their property again almost as soon as it was released by the sheriff.

An action for an order of sale affecting some property recently sold by the courts was entered today by D. C. McMichael against Mrs. Marie Porter. The land is a part of the estate of the late A. J. Cowan, and when sold by the sheriff was bought by the defendant. Now the plaintiff produces a certificate of tax payment for $34.07, and wants the property sold to satisfy this lien.

Four Men Fought.

There was a Kilkenny fight at the corner of Sixth and Jefferson streets late yesterday afternoon, four men making the interesting participants. The cause of the trouble was snow balling and more or less whisky. An attempt was made to ring up the patrol, but the drunken individual in the row did all he could to prevent this interference, and the police were not called. It was a disgraceful row, and the gang should have been compelled to pay for their fun.

Some Big Cargoes.

The Hudson, with one of the largest cargoes ever carried on the boat, passed up this morning at 3 o'clock, having been delayed many hours by the heavy ice which was in the river last night. About 12,000 hoopoles were left at the local wharf.

When the Scotia went down last night 50 packages of ware were taken on at this point. The shipment is among the largest in many months, and added to the big cargo which the boat carried.

Interest In Ironedale.

Several Ironedale men were in town today, and said that the strikers are closely watching the efforts that are being made to settle the differences between the Amalgamated association and the owners of some of the mills. They said that it would materially affect the town if a satisfactory conclusion was reached, and many of the men now working in Indiana and other parts of the country would return, as their families are still in Ironedale.

Compliments For D. J. Smith.

The announcement of the determination of D. J. Smith, of St. Clair township, to face the troubles of a primary as a candidate for the legislature brought forth many declarations of fealty from his friends in this city. His own township promises to give him a full vote, and he will have a strong support in this city. The only other candidate asking the position is Attorney Ashford, of Salineville, who is also well known in this part of the county.

Noble Charity.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society, of the Methodist Episcopal church, has already sent goods to the amount of $150 to the sufferers in Nebraska. Also, a well filled box to the non-sectarian Orphan's home, Council Bluffs, Iowa. The Christian women of the society are doing grand work in the cause of charity. The members of our various churches, as well as lovers of common humanity, are coming nobly to the rescue of the western sufferers. Speed the good work. God will bless all such charity.

Pay Up or Go to Canton.

Dutch Zoellars is still in jail, Mayor Gilbert having given him a day to collect his available finances, and, if possible, prevent a sentence at the works. He is doing all in his power, but it seems certain that the first sentence will be carried out. There were reports on the street that Zoellars had been severely injured in the fight, and was more in need of medical attention than of imprisonment, but the police say he is all right.

Don't Touch Those Sour Grapes.

The recommendation of an appropriation of $75,000 for a public building at East Liverpool made to the house is purely for publication and not as an evidence of good faith. It is simply a straw with which Congress-man Ikert is to tickle some of his East Liverpool constituents. Why, they won't be able to spare $75,000 for a public building at East Liverpool out of the next $50,000,000 bond issue.—Alliance Review.

Damaged the Skiff.

Several people from this city and a couple of their West Virginia friends were crossing the river in a skiff yesterday afternoon, when the ice, which had been grinding against the boat knocked a hole in the side, and water poured in in a stream. Fortunately the skiff was only a few feet from shore, otherwise the end might have been disastrous, as the boat would undoubtedly have sunk.

More About the Railroad.

Persons residing along the proposed line of railroad across the county believe that something will be done this year, regardless of the assertion that the activity of a few weeks ago is only a well-regulated scheme to make new right of way agreements. Some farmers, it is said, are so anxious to see the line built that they are ready to make concessions that will be interesting to the projectors.

Bound for Lisbon.

The Salineville school board, accompanied by Thomas Rodgers, of that place, passed through on the morning train for Lisbon, where they have some business relating to the construction of the new structure in the coal town. The board had a lot of trouble not long ago because of the condemnation of property on which the building will stand.

Poker Players Caught.

The story is told that a half dozen boys were surprised while engaged in a game of poker in the camp ground Monday night of this week. They promised never to play the game again if they were not arrested, and the good man who had found them let the crowd go home. He did not know whether they live in Wellsville or are from this city.

A Sacred Concert.

Arrangements are being made for a sacred concert to be held on the evening of February 1, in the Grand Opera House, for the benefit of the Nebraska sufferers. All the music rendered will be sacred, and many church choirs in the city are being invited to take part. No admission will be charged, but a collection will be taken during the evening.

Ready to Work.

All the moving at the Dresden pottery is over, and the new plant is ready for occupancy. The engine was started last night for the first time, and proved eminently satisfactory. At the office today the statement was made that no time had yet been set for starting up, but it would likely be soon, probably the first of next week.

Liverpool In Beaver.

Work was commenced this morning on the handsome new building which will serve as a home for the Beaver Star, one of the papers of the valley that has been getting rich these past few years. The contract for the structure was secured by Robert Hall, of this city.

Mrs. McCann Recovering.

The many friends of Mrs. Thomas McCann, of Sixth street, will be glad to know that she is slowly recovering from a severe attack of catarrh of the stomach, and is now able to be about her room.

Buried Today.

The remains of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome McCormick, Broadway, were interred this morning.

TO THE SUPREME COURT

The Golding Company Appealing a Case.

CONNORS GOT SOME MONEY

Because of Injuries Received in the Flint Mill in West End, But the Matter is Not Yet Ended—The Accident Occurred a Year Ago Last June.

The damage suit which Timothy Connors brought against the Golding company will likely have another hearing before the matter is settled once for all.

Papers are now being prepared for the advancement of the case from the court in which the judgment was given to the supreme court where it will be settled. After these are filed the case will get a place on the calendar, and will be numbered among the many now before the highest tribunal of Ohio. It will be readily remembered by readers of the News Review that Connors was horribly mangled while at work in the flint mill, the engine being started when he was in a dangerous position. After a time he brought suit in common pleas court for $10,000 and got a judgment for $3,000. The company appealed to the circuit court, and the judgment was reaffirmed. Now they take it to supreme court in the hope that this body will look at the case in a different light.

End the Nuisance.

The practice of snow balling became so general today that it was a nuisance long before noon, and became a plague before evening arrived. Men were struck wherever seen, and in not a few instances women were compelled to stand the bombardment. One lady was hit in the face while leaving the First Methodist Episcopal church last night, and almost rendered insensible. The nuisance should be stopped when it becomes so dangerous as it proved today.

Entered a Lot of Suits.

Harrison Rinehart brought four suits in the court of Squire Travis today, all of which will be heard Jan. 21. The first is against Robert Abrams for $15.65 for labor performed and some stone. William Buchagen is asked to pay $10.50 for damages to a carriage, and from Charles McMillen he wants $9.91 for labor performed. Daniel Densmore ends the list with a suit against him for $15.50, the amount being claimed as damages to a buggy.

New Electrical Machinery.

Improvements at the light plant will be continued until the place is in the best of condition. A lot of new electrical machinery has arrived at the wharfboat and will be put in at once.

A number of armatures for use on the motor line are at the wharfboat, and will be added to the property of the road without delay. They are badly needed.

Meeting With Success.

Revival services are being conducted at the Methodist Protestant church by Reverend Whitehead, and success is coming to his efforts. One convert was made last night.

The crowds attending the evangelistic services going on at the First Methodist Episcopal church are large, and some converts are being made.

The Antiquity of Pottery.

The success of the meeting of operative potters, at which an interesting paper was read, has prompted another meeting. It will be held by local No. 10 on Thursday evening, and the subject is "The Antiquity of Pottery." An invitation is extended to all operative potters in the city to attend the meeting.

They're Going to Wed.

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS REVIEW. LISBON, Jan. 16.—A marriage license was this morning issued to Frederick W. Fertig and Miss Lilly McKinnon, both of East Liverpool.

Wyndham Davis and Miss Lucy Summers, both of Salineville, were given a marriage license this morning.

Died This Morning.

The two-year-old son of Basil Rowe died this morning at the residence of his father on Grant street after an illness from pneumonia. Funeral services will be held at the home on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the interment will be in Riverview cemetery.

Say It Was a Fake.

Street railway men are denouncing the scare head article in a local sheet last night regarding the street car collision. They say there was a slight collision, but the remainder of the article is a monstrous fake.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, JAN. 16.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF OHIO.

DEFICIENCY seems to be the watchword of the Cleveland administration.

THE indictment of Colonel Colt in Fayette county suggests that a few miserables would be fulfilling the moral law by carrying the gospel to Washington, C. H.

A RAILROAD map recently issued gives Yellow Creek a prominent position, and does not so much as show East Liverpool in small type. This is libel of the worst character.

WHEN the returns are all in it will be found that more than one Ohio man has been chosen to represent his adopted constituency in the senate.
The mercury is out of sight when the Buckeye boys get left.

MORE than one Democratic politician with a longing to sacrifice himself on the altar of public office is watching the Republican party these days in the hope that a split will appear, and he will be able to slip into a good position.

CINCINNATI, Columbus and Toledo want the state convention, and since all three cannot have it, and Columbus can make the only claim of location, there promises to be some hard words passed between the editors of the three aspiring cities.

MUCH as we may desire to see a public building rear its proud head somewhere in the neighborhood of the Diamond, there can be no doubt that congress is in anything but a mood for passing appropriations permitting this desirable feature just now.
Perhaps Hon. R. W. Taylor can say a word or two when he enters on the duties of his office.

TWO REQUISITES.

Unless all indications fall there will be a lively campaign in Ohio this year, the hardest part of which will be fought and won when the Republican convention meets and selects the men it desires to honor. Candidates are springing up on every hand, and the county without at least one aspirant for a place on the state ticket seems a barren spot in the fertility of its surroundings. All of these ambitious ones can not be chosen. Some will find the disappointment of defeat. More than one will realize that things other than gold have a pretty glitter. Yet it is plainly the duty of the party to filter the supply, and take out those who, because of incompetency and inability would endanger the success of the ticket. It is successful men, with the ability to battle for the glory of Republicanism, who should be the elect, men who will devote their every energy to defeating the hosts of Democracy and healing over any breaks which may unintentionally be made in their own organization. Even now some Republicans mentioned for office on the state ticket have not the energy and ability to fill these requirements.

Discharging Men at Homestead.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 16.—There is great excitement in the Homestead steel plant.
Superintendent C. M. Schwab called about 20 of the most prominent workmen and asked why they attended the meeting to discuss organization, and then discharged them. The company had detectives at the meeting. The excitement is subdued, as there is fear as to what will be the next to walk the plank.

Superintendent Byrnes Retained.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Mayor Strong
has asked Superintendent Byrnes to remain at the head of the police department of this city. The mayor has sent a letter to the superintendent, referring to his long and honorable service, and the probability of legislation at Albany which will necessitate changes in the department.

HASTINGS SWORN IN.

Pennsylvania's New Governor
Takes the Oath.

PATTISON RETURNS TO HIS HOME.

The New Governor Reviews the Inaugural Parade—Lieutenant Governor Lyon
Is Also Inducted Into His New Office
The Ceremonies Very Imposing.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 16.—Daniel H.
Hastings is now governor of the great state of Pennsylvania. The inaugural ceremonies were very imposing.

Lieutenant Governor Lyon was sworn into office on the floor of the senate chamber before Governor Hastings took the oath of office on the portico.
Before the oath was administered to Lieutenant Governor Lyon the retiring

HASTINGS AND LYON.

Lieutenant governor, Hon. Louis A.
Watres, made a short address thanking the senate for its uniform kindness to him while he presided over its deliberations. Judge Simonon of the Dauphin county court then administered the oath to Lieutenant Governor Lyon.

The senate then retired to the portico
of the capitol to attend the inauguration
of Governor Hastings.
Governor Hastings and party were greeted with much enthusiasm when they took their places on the portico of the capitol. Governor Pattison stood by the side of his successor, flanked on the left by Chief Justice Sterrett. After a selection by the Third Brigade band, of Pottsville, Chief Clerk Smiley of the senate read the certificate of election.
The oath of office was then administered
to Governor Hastings by Chief Justice Sterrett, after which prayer was offered by Rev. W. H. Honck of Hazelton, formerly pastor of the Methodist church at Belleville, of which the new executive is a member.

Governor Hastings then began the delivery of his inaugural address, which was listened to with much attention by the large assembly. Its delivery did not occupy more than 15 minutes, and at its close a salute was fired by Battery C,
and then the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Honck. This concluded the ceremonies and the governor and party took carriages and rode at the head of the procession to the reviewing stand,
where they reviewed the parade.

The parade moved from Third and Market streets at the close of the ceremonies at the capitol. The clubs and organizations began assembling at 10 o'clock in the streets assigned for their respective formations. A warning gun was fired on Capitol Hill at 1 o'clock and a starting gun 15 minutes later, when the parade moved in columns of eight.
Several thousand men were in line, including members of the national guard.
Political clubs from all parts of the state
and volunteer fire companies.

Governor Pattison, after participating in the inaugural proceedings at the capitol, left for Philadelphia. The train was ordered to stop at Overbrook, where the ex-governor's new country seat is located and where his wife is now ill.

Unless the ex-governor is called upon by the people of Philadelphia in the coming elections to act as mayor of the Quaker City, he will resume the practice of law in that city, or it is thought probable, accept the presidency of a bank or trust company. The ex-govern-nor's staff formed a permanent organization, by the election of the governor as president. A social session will be held once a year in Philadelphia. After the governor is installed in his new home at Overbrook he will be presented with a pair of fine horses by his staff.
The animals were bred by Colonel West of Montrose and valued at $1,500.

Didn't Consider a Plot to Rebel.

DES MOINES, Jan. 16.—J. R. Sovereign was seen in reference to the statement attributed to him by The Leader of Des Moines, that he would consider that he and E. V. Debs had considered a rebellion against the government at the time of the big railroad strike in Chicago last summer. He denied that he had said that the scheme was considered. He said further that a plan was submitted to Debs himself, and the other strike leaders, the details of which had been partially worked out by two Chicago attorneys whose names he refused to reveal.

Fears That Nansen Is Lost.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—The Pall Mall Gazette says that grave fears for the safety of the Nansen Arctic expedition are general among Arctic voyagers of Great Britain and Scandinavia. Lieutenant Noygaard of the Dinna expedition, which was wrecked in the Kara sea, has expressed the opinion to the Danish Geographical society that there is no question but the Fram has been crushed in the ice and that Dr. Nansen and his party are retreating.

Indicted the Cashier.

OMAHA, Jan. 16.—As a sequel to the wrecking of the Capital National bank
at Lincoln, Neb., last year, through which over a million dollars was stolen
and President Moshier sent to the penitentiary for five years, the federal grand jury returned an indictment against R.
C. Outcault, a prominent Lincoln citizen, for aiding Moshier's wrecking plan.
Outcault was cashier of the Capital
National bank.

Callaway Succeeds Caldwell.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 16.—A telegram received at the general offices of the Nickel Plate road, in this city, from New York, announces that at a meeting of the directors of that road Mr. S. R.
Callaway was elected president, vice D.
W. Caldwell, resigned.

Rolling Mills to Resume.

PHILADELPHIA, N. J., Jan. 16.—It was announced that the Delaware rolling mills, which have been idle since last Monday, will resume operations next Monday, as will also the American sheetiron mill, which shut down four weeks ago. The two plants employ about 250 men.

Fair's Will to Be Contested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—It is common report that the great estate of $20, 000,000 left by the late James G. Fair will be fought for in the courts. Charles L. Fair will lead the contest for the benefit of the other heirs.

Mantle and Carter Will Be Elected.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 16.—The Republican senatorial caucus nominees, Leo Mantle for the short term and Thomas H. Carter for the long term, received the solid Republican vote in both houses and their election will be ratified in joint assembly.

Wolcott Pretty Sure of It.

DENVER, Jan. 16.—Both branches will meet in joint session today, and the indications point to the re-election of Wolcott for United States senator on the first ballot.

Two Women Drowned.

HARDIN, Ills., Jan. 16.—While crossing the Mississippi river on the ice at the Calhoun clubhouse, Miss Ida Trembling and Miss Mollie Rodgers broke through the ice and were drowned.

Lord Brassey Becomes Governor.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—Lord Brassey has accepted the governorship of Victoria, Australia, in succession to the Earl of Houpton.

Thurston Elected Senator.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 16.—John M.
Thurston has been elected United States senator.

RICKS MAY BE TRIED.

The Vote to Impeach Him a Great Surprise.

DELAY MAY END THE MATTER.

As the Division Was on Party Lines It
May Be Smothered in the Next Congress—How Impeachment Proceedings Are Held.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Congress was given a decided surprise by the house committee on the judiciary, which decided by a vote of 7 to 6 to report a resolution for the impeachment of Judge Augustus J. Ricks of Cleveland for malfeasance in office. Not for years has a United States judge been called before the bar of the senate to defend his right to wear the ermine of office against criminal charges, and only three or four times in the history of the government has an impeachment trial of a member of the federal judiciary been conducted.

Few members had looked into the charges preferred by the Central Labor union of Cleveland, the accuser of Judge Ricks, that while sitting on the bench
he paid to himself fees which he claimed he had previously earned as clerk of the court and to which it is now asserted he was not entitled. The number of years which have elapsed since the transaction and the contention of the judge's friends that the proceedings were inspired by a ruling prejudicial to the interest of labor unions which he made resolutely, tended to lessen the interest which ordinarily would have been taken in the case. Now that the judiciary committee has deemed the matter of sufficient gravity to warrant impeachment it has become suddenly a decided sensation.

The friends of Judge Ricks declare that there are large possibilities that the impeachment may not be undertaken.
They depend on members who were absent from the stormy committee meeting to join with them Friday in voting to substitute a minority report for the one which Mr. Bailey will prepare, and which will be a strong arraignment of the judge, concluded in the tenor of his speeches before the committee. There is doubt of the parliamentary possibility of such a stroke, but the short time remaining to the congress inspires the belief that the case will go over to the next congress. In that event the impeachment probably will not be undertaken,
as the division was practically on party lines, with the Republicans supporting Judge Ricks.

The function of the house is that of a grand jury in such cases. It decides whether sufficient cause is shown to justify a trial, and appoints managers who act as prosecuting attorneys. The senators sit in the capacity of judges or jurors, with the chief justice of the supreme court presiding. The senate has nothing to say about whether an impeachment is to be conducted, but if it does not see fit to finish this trial before the 4th of March all the proceedings
taken will be void.

THE SENATE SESSION.

The Income Tax Serves as a Text For Wide Discussion.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The senate gave the session to further speeches in which the income tax served as a text for a wide range of discussion on the tariff, the currency and the Populist platform. Mr. Hill's proposition made last week to amend the deficiency bill
so that the income tax would be tested in the courts has apparently started an inexhaustible flow of speeches on public affairs in general. Mr. Cockrell, in charge of the deficiency bill, has sought vainly to secure a vote on the Hill amendment so that the deficiency bill might move along to final passage. He hoped to secure action during the session, but the speeches of Mr. Call (Pa.)
and Allen (Neb.) made this impossible.
Mr. Allen took occasion to defend the Populist party against many charges made in and out of congress that it was a party of vagaries. It led to a very full discussion of all Populist doctrine and a comparison of them with the doctrines of other parties.

Will Report Wilson's Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The house ways and means committee has decided to report to the house Mr. Wilson's bill to remove one-tenth of 1 cent pound differential on sugar imported from countries giving an export bounty,
which has elicited protests from Germany, Austria and other nations, and the repeal of which was recommended by the president.

The Jap Spies' Episode.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The president has sent to the senate the correspondence
in the case of the two Japanese spies,
together with a letter from the secretary of state, in which it is stated that the American consuls had no authority to protect Japanese in China except so far as using their good offices when occasion demanded. It was also stated that the Jap spies were not tortured.

Bad Outlook For Potters.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The first session of the nineteenth annual convention of the United States Potters' association was held at the Arlington hotel,
with about 50 members of the association present. President Burgess, in his annual address, spoke of the outlook for the manufacturing potters as the most discouraging in the history of industry.

Killed by a Schoolboy.

HINTON, W. Va., Jan. 16.—News has reached here of the killing of J. H. Hudson, one of the best known citizens of Monroe county, by Osborne Garten, a schoolboy, aged 16. They quarreled about Hudson's daughter, with whom young Garten was in love. Hudson attacked the boy and was stabbed.

Georgia's Gift to Nebraskans.

ATLANTA, Jan. 16.—Georgia's response to Nebraska's appeal for help was made Tuesday evening, when promptly at 8 o'clock a special train of 15 cars, loaded with food and clothing, left the Union
depot for Lincoln.

SOCIETY FAVORITES KILLED.

The Sad Death of Broker Whitridge and Wife in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 16.—The death of broker Thomas Whitridge and wife, who were killed by falling from a fireman's ladder while escaping from the second story of a burning house while trying to escape, was one of the saddest fatalities that has occurred in Baltimore.

Mr. Whitridge was a son of Mr. John
A. Whitridge, with whom he was connected in banking and brokerage. His wife was Miss Bessie Shoemaker, youngest daughter of Mrs. Samuel Shoemaker.
Whitridge was a governor of the Bachelors' Monday Cotillion club. He and Mrs. Whitridge were leaders in Baltimore society. They were married only last April and were beginning life with every condition of happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Whitridge were awakened to find the house filled with smoke and escape
by ordinary means was apparently cut off. They were too much excited to obey the injunctions of the firemen and the result was the death of both.

Found Guilty and Fined.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 16.—In the United States court C. T. Shields, Willard Diehn, E. Winfield Lukens,
Charles T. Dollmer, J. C. Newell, Mrs.
J. C. Newell, Irving Chambers, F. S.
Fouse, R. J. Ruby and T. C. Hughes,
all of Philadelphia, composing the Frankenstein and Financial Co-Operation company, were found guilty and fined $100 each and costs for using the mails for fraudulent purposes. Most of these people are said to be in Europe now.
They operated Wheeling, what was called short term insurance.

Farmers Want Better Representation.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—The executive committee of the National Farmers' Alliance has held a long session at the Sherman House. Resolutions were adopted declaring that as the farmers are the most numerous class in the country and have suffered from legislation unfriendly to the agricultural interests, the farmers should elect their pro rata share of the legislators of the country.

Will Cause International Dispute.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 16.—The Alaskan News, published at Juneau City, makes the sensational prediction that Taken inlet and the head of Lynn canal will become famous the world over as affording grounds for fierce international dispute between Great Britain and the United States and a cause of arbitration by the European powers to determine which country shall hold possession of it.

They Roasted Channey Dewey.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Dr. Channey
M. Dewey was roundly denounced at a meeting of the Methodist ministers of this city and vicinity in the rooms of the Methodist Book Concern. The denunciation was for the stigma the doctor had cast on ministers by a recent interview wherein he defended the action of his railroad in withdrawing the half rate privileges from clergymen.

Fined Under the Blue Laws.

SOUTHINGTON, Conn., Jan. 16.—The first conviction under the blue laws was made here by Justice Smith, who fined Jacob Heinrich, a barber, on three counts for conducting a secular business on Sunday, laboring on the same and exposing goods for sale.
Heinrich was arrested on complaint of
Rev. Mr. Breaker.

McMillan and Burrows Elected.

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 16.—United States Senator McMillan has been re-elected by the legislature in a joint session, receiving an unanimous vote.
Julius C. Burrows received all the votes for short term senator except that of Donovan of Bay (Dem.).

FRANCE HAS NO RULER

President Casimir-Perier Quits His High Office.

CRITICISMS IRRITATED HIM.

The Fall of the Ministry and Kindred Matters Made His Position Unpleasant. His Mother, Cabinet Officers and Friends Begged Him Not to Resign.

PARIS, Jan. 16.—Casimir-Perier, president of the French republic, has resigned office.

There was no suspicion here that the president contemplated resigning and when the news spread to the clubs, cafes and boulevards there was the greatest excitement manifested.

M. Jean Paul Pierre Casimir-Perier was elected president of the French republic at Versailles on June 27, in succession to President Carnot, who was stabbed to death on Sunday evening.

JEAN CASIMIR-PERIER.
 June 24, in the streets of Lyons, by Cesareo Santo, an anarchist, who was afterward executed.

As president, M. Casimir-Perier carried out the line of policy which had marked his previous career in public. He stood for the republic against socialists and anarchists.

On Nov. 4 M. Gerault-Richard was sentenced to serve a term of one year's imprisonment and to pay a fine of 4,000 francs for publishing an article in Le Chomard strongly reflecting upon President Casimir-Perier.

On Dec. 25, when a bye-election was held to fill a vacancy in the First constituency of Thirteenth district of Paris, M. Gerault-Richard was put forward as a candidate and after a rebalot was elected.

Shortly afterwards, on Jan. 10, there was a discussion of a heated nature in the chamber of deputies on the question of releasing M. Gerault-Richard from prison in view of his having been elected a member of the chamber of deputies and Premier Dupuy declared that his ministry would resign if his release was voted by the chamber. The premier's threat had the desired effect and the proposal was rejected. But the debate on the motion is said to have affected President Casimir-Perier strongly and he fretted under the criticisms which were showered upon him.

There was another matter which served to irritate President Casimir-Perier considerably, and that was the election, on Dec. 18, of M. Henri Brisson to the presidency of the chamber of deputies in succession to the late M. Burdeau. M. Brisson, it will be remembered, polled the highest number of votes for a Chief Magistrate of France, and he was known to be strongly opposed to retaining M. Gerault-Richard in prison and in favor of amnesty for all political crimes. Consequently his reelection, on Jan. 8, to the presidency of the chamber of deputies was looked upon in many quarters as being a decided rebuff to President Casimir-Perier, and it was intimated that the fall of the cabinet would follow, and there were persons who even hinted that the resignation of President Casimir-Perier and the election, possibly, of M. Brisson to the presidency might be the eventual outcome of the government's fight to keep M. Gerault-Richard in prison for criticizing the president of the republic in the public press.

In his inaugural address in the chamber of deputies on Dec. 20, M. Brisson made an excellent speech, and one which was well received by the occupants of the Republican benches. After thanking the chamber for the honor upon him and eulogizing his predecessor, M. Brisson dwelt at length upon the fact that the progress made by the republic was due, in a great measure, if not entirely, to liberty of discussion. This was the keynote to his policy, and it will be seen, it was directly in opposition not only to the view of the government but to the policy of President Casimir-Perier himself.

An official note has been issued announcing the resignation of President Casimir-Perier and forecasting the ideas he intends to develop in his farewell address to the chamber of deputies. The note says that in the eyes of the president the vote which overthrew the cabinet was only a secondary incident of the struggle which is proceeding against the parliamentary regime and public liberties. M. Casimir-Perier had hoped that the president of the republic, who is deprived of the means of action, would have been exempted from party attacks and the political confidence of the Republicans would have accorded him power and authority. He had also hoped that those who, despite himself, had placed him in a position where he was unable to defend himself would have undertaken the defense of the first magistrate.

All the members of the cabinet from Prime Minister Dupuy down and M. Challemet-Lacour and M. Spuller exhausted every argument to induce M. Casimir-Perier not to resign. Their efforts were without success. As M. Dupuy and Spuller were leaving the palace of the Elysee together they met in the corridor the president's mother, who is 80 years old. They begged her to entreat her son to remain in office and she promised that she would do her utmost. It is stated that the interview between mother and son was very affecting. Nevertheless, M. Casimir-Perier sent a letter to M. Dupuy informing him that his decision was irrevocable.

COIT GIVES BOND.

He Appears Before Judge Nash at Washington C. H.

WASHINGTON C. H., O., Jan. 16.—Colonel Coit came here, gave bond for his appearance in court to answer the charge of manslaughter and returned to Columbus. His bond was fixed $2,500 in each of the three counts of indictment, and was signed by Hon. Mills Gardner and W. E. Cook of this county and John G. Deshler, George W. Sinks and E. K. Stewart of Columbus, who came with him for that purpose.

He was also accompanied by four officers of his regiment, Captains Goldney and Moore, Surgeon Gunnsalus and Lieutenant Williams and by Attorneys George K. Nash and B. H. Booth. On motion of Judge Nash the court excused Coit of pleading to the indictments until his attorneys had an opportunity to examine them.

THE JOHNSONS RETIRE.

It May Cause a $20,000,000 Railway Combine in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 16.—It is said that Congressman Tom L. Johnson and his brother Albert, will soon retire from the directory of the Cleveland Electric Street Railway company, which, with the Cleveland City Cable company, now controls every street car line in this city.

It is believed that the retirement of the Johnsons will be followed by a consolidation of the cable and electric companies. This would involve a deal of about $20,000,000 and result in a street car monopoly in this city. The stock of the electric company has risen rapidly within the past few days.

Pummeled by Steve Brodie.

LIMA, O., Jan. 16.—The newsboy on train No. 8 of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railway, due here at 9:45, sold a 10-cent book to a passenger for 25 cents. Steve Brodie, the bridge-jumper, was on the train and requested the boy to refund the 15 cents due the person making the purchase. The newsboy got smart and refused to do it, whereupon Steve struck him and beat him up so badly that he had to be carried into the baggage car. Brodie, with his company, was en route to Johnstown, Pa., from Chicago. Several passengers objected to Steve's method of causing a refund but had not the temerity to interfere.

Hogan Defeats Slusher.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 16.—The 10-round boxing contest between "Kid" Hogan of Pittsburgh and Charles Slusher of Louisville, for $250, occurred here before 700 people. Hogan had the best of Slusher throughout the ten rounds, the latter making but two leads. Hogan secured first blood in the ninth round, but was knocked down in the third round. Slusher was knocked down in the seventh. Time was called while they were sparring in the tenth round, the referee awarding the contest to Hogan.

A Railroad Ordered Sold.

TOLEDO, Jan. 16.—The United States district court has entered a decree ordering the sale of the Toledo, Ann Arbor and Northern Michigan railroad at public auction, at Manhattan junction, near this city, after the requisite four weeks advertisement. H. G. Blanchard of Detroit is appointed to carry out the decree. It is possible to redeem the road at any time prior to the sale, by the payment of costs, indebtedness, expenses of receivership, etc. The debt due, to meet which the sale is ordered, is about $500,000.

Work and Food For Starving Miners.

GLOUCESTER, O., Jan. 16.—Work has been resumed in six mines in the Sunday creek valley, and the miners who have been threatened with starvation are much encouraged. A carload of provisions has arrived from Cincinnati, and a commissary was immediately opened to distribute the food to the suffering poor. Word has been received from Cleveland and other cities that liberal quantities of provisions have been shipped here to relieve the prevailing distress.

Prominent Men to Speak.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 16.—The committee of arrangements for the National Conference of Manufacturers, which will meet here next Tuesday, announces that the following speakers have consented to make addresses: Governor McKinley, Ohio; Hon. Warner M. Miller, New York; Senator Morgan, Alabama; President M. E. Ingalls, Big Four; Mayor Caldwell, Cincinnati. One thousand delegates will be present.

A Steamboat Damaged.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 16.—The steamer Longfellow started for New Orleans with nine passengers and 300 tons of freight. Passing under the Chesapeake and Ohio river bridge she collided with a pier which demolished the port guards. Thinking the injury slight, she proceeded, but began taking water so rapidly that she put to shore 13 miles below, landed her passengers and discharged her freight.

Has Returned True Bills.

DENVER, Jan. 16.—The United States grand jury has returned true bills against Hamilton Armstrong and chief of police, Kate Dryer, matron of the city jail, and Denks Mullens, president of the fire and police board, on a charge of embezzling and opening letters addressed to Sodie W. Likens, while she was employed as police matron.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Perhaps the boys who jump street cars will cease the practice after a few are killed. One youngster had a narrow escape in the West End last night.

James D. Kennedy, representing a Wheeling paper, was in town last evening searching for information. His paper is preparing an industrial edition, in which the Ohio valley will figure largely.

Inquiry at a number of potteries develops the fact that business is opening up very well. There is no great rush of orders, yet there seems to be enough to keep the manufacturers in a good humor.

The severe weather caused a suspension of work on the improvements now going on at the different plants, but every day where work can be done is eagerly seized. The foundation for the new kiln at Sebring's will be started as soon as the excavation is ready.

Further news from the Girls' band, now making a tour through New York state, says that they are still being greeted by crowded houses, and in more than one place have contracted for return dates. The girls are advertising East Liverpool, as well as winning the success they so richly deserve.

An amusing sight in an uptown store last night was that of a drunken man preaching religion to all whom he could induce to listen. Every person who entered the place was buttonholed while the man talked Scripture volubly. He was finally induced to keep his opinions to himself, and wandered away with a crushed look upon his face.

Several from this city attended the firemen's dance in Wellsville last night and spent an enjoyable evening, although more staid away because of some statements regarding unionism, or rather the lack of it. The Wellsville people patronized the affair better than that given by the fire department on New Year's eve.

Tomorrow evening will be a notable event for the Masonic fraternity of the city, the occasion being the installation of the officers of Riddle lodge and of the Eastern Star. After the ceremonies have been passed through the party will be banqueted, while dancing will follow. The event promises to be one of the most elaborate receptions, ever held by the Masons in this city.

Now that there will be no more racing on the Wellsville track it is thought that an attempt will be made to organize a stock company and operate a course near this city. The other side of the river has been suggested by some of the sports, who would like to see the scheme become a reality, and there are others who want to have it above East End.

The number of tramps in East End has thinned out somewhat, but there are still too many for comfort, as the term is applied by the housewives. Cripples continue to come in alarming numbers, and besides three one legged men, and two with each an arm missing, seen last week, two on crutches and a couple on pegs were added to the list yesterday. Fortunately they decided to continue eastward.

The Turners are indignant because a local sheet, noted for its unreliability, stated the other night that some $400 had been raised for the widow of the late Adolph Stein. The story was a lie out of the whole cloth, and, of course, hinders the Turners in their charitable work. The truth is that they have raised about $60. The sheet partook of crow last night, and the chances are that it will be served in more copious quantities.

A few weeks ago a project was on foot to have Robert G. Ingersoll come to this city and deliver one of his well worded but meaningless attacks upon the Bible before an audience, at the usual rate per head. He has been in this part of the world several times since the lecture season opened, and it was thought he could be secured with little trouble. Last night it was learned that the scheme had died for want of support a day or two ago.

No work is being done on the bridge at present, but members of the company are moving with an alacrity which cannot be mistaken. Mr. Braley, of Canton, one of the stockholders, was here yesterday in conference with J. E. McDonald, although the result of their deliberations were not given to the public. A number of contractors have been in the city the past few days, and after a short stay have returned to Pittsburgh.

Colonel Taylor, of the board of education, is looking after the correspondence relating to the purchase of the clock for the new school building, and there is nothing definite to the present time. There have been no agents here as yet, but a host will likely settle upon the city when the word goes abroad that a clock is wanted here; but when that will be the school authorities have not yet decided. There will be a careful investigation into the best makes before the purchase is made.

D. M. McLANE.
 Successor to A. C. Bradshaw.
 Having purchased the stock and good will of A. C. Bradshaw in the grocery business, we respectfully solicit the custom of his old patrons, and shall endeavor to treat the public in such a manner, with first class goods and reasonable prices, as to cause new patrons to deal with us. We will offer such inducements to regular patrons as cannot fail in winning their commendation and holding their trade, as the average man desires to purchase where he can get the best goods at the least possible expense. Give us a trial for a short time and we will tell you our secret—a measure which we believe is sure to win in the long run. We desire to win success, and we believe we can win it with good goods and square dealing. Pay us a visit.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles

"Persons having normal vision will be able to read this print at a distance of 14 inches from the eye with ease and accuracy. Also will be able to read with such ease and accuracy. If unable to do so your eyes are defective and you will have immediate relief. When the eyes become tired from reading or writing, or if the letters look blurred and run together, it is a sure indication that glasses are needed. The money well spent in buying a pair of spectacles will result in positive relief from the constant strain upon the eyes of accommodation to supply the defects in the eyes."

Among the Afflicted.

Mrs. S. H. Badgley, who has been dangerously ill for several weeks, is able to sit up now.
Mrs. Betsy West, mother of Mrs. Collin Kinsey, whose illness was mentioned a few days ago, is quite low, and it was thought last night that she was dying. Her demise is a matter of only a few days, as the lady is very old.
The little child of M. E. Golding, whose illness was pronounced scarlet fever, is rapidly recovering.
David Watson, an employe of the water works, is seriously ill at his home, 123 Washington street, with an attack of typhoid fever.
Mrs. Pickall, of West End, is improving as rapidly as could be expected, instead of being no better, as stated yesterday.
Howard Quick, 273 East Market street, is again confined to his room, suffering from a relapse. The attending physician hopes to have him around again in a few days.
Mrs. J. M. Arbuthnot, Pleasant street, is ill with the grip.
Miss Carrie Johnson, Calcutta road, has the typhoid fever.
Mrs. Adam Hill, Third street, is very ill.

Two Good Plays.

The "Kentucky Girl," a bewitching actress who has been very successful on the stage, will be at the Grand on Saturday evening. The play is good, with any quantity of excitement and dash, and should draw a large audience.
The "Still Alarm," always so popular with theater goers, will be the attraction next Monday evening. The company is made up of good material, and the play is entertaining.

Ten Barrels Ready.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church are doing a good work for the Nebraska sufferers. Already 10 barrels of clothing and shoes have been collected by them and several barrels of provisions will be sent along. The good work of relieving the people in the west should receive the support of all citizens.

Mothers, remember that Thursday, Jan. 17, is children's day at MacKenzie's photo gallery, and that on that day you can get the loved one's likeness taken for one-half the regular price. Cloudy weather as good as sunshine. First National bank building. Take the elevator.

Thanks, Gentlemen.

The ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance union return warm thanks to the officials of the Specialty Glass company for the present of three dozen handsome tumblers, to be used at the Young Woman's home, Market street.

Children's Day—An opportunity not to be despised. On that day you can have your pictures taken at half price. Do not miss this chance, but come tomorrow. Cloudy weather good as sunshine. MacKenzie, First National bank. Take elevator.

Delayed by the Ice.

Although the river is falling, the rate is so small that but little difference is made in the appearance of the stream. There will be another rise when the snow melts.

A Clean Collar

One that you can keep clean all the time—a collar that does not wilt when you get over-heated; that does not fray on the edge, or tear out at the buttonholes, and can be cleaned by simply wiping off with a wet sponge or cloth. These collars and cuffs are made by covering linen collars or cuffs on both sides with waterproof "celluloid," thus giving strength and durability. They are the only waterproof goods so made, and every piece is stamped as follows:

TRADE MARK.
CELLULOID
MARK.

Ask for this, and refuse to take any imitation if you expect satisfaction. If your dealer does not keep them, send direct to us, enclosing amount, and we will mail you sample. Collars 25 cts. each. Cuffs 50 cts. pair. State size, and whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

New York.

After a Ring.

Mellinda Malone laid in a complaint against William Dorf this morning asserting that he had taken a ring which belonged to her. There seems to be little ground for a case as the woman gave the ring away, and she was so informed at city hall.

Ill In Columbus.

Word has been received here that Remus Shenkle, a student in the ceramic department of the university, is ill, and has been taken to a hospital in Columbus. He is suffering from grip, and his condition is not dangerous.

They Had a Ride.

A sled load of young people took advantage of the snow to make a trip to the Bell school house, in the country, last night. They had an enjoyable time, and did not return until an early hour this morning.

A New Arrival.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Stein, Minerva street, a daughter.

Look for "Sweet Ruth."

EXCURSION TO CALIFORNIA AND FLORIDA.

If you are contemplating a trip to Florida or California, on any point south or west, a postal card or note of inquiry addressed to the undersigned will secure for you full information as to rates, time tables, etc., via the Pennsylvania Short Lines, or a personal visit from a competent passenger agent if desired. D. C. MacWaters, district passenger agent, 1127 Liberty street, Pittsburg.

Will First Investigate Frauds.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 16.—The house of representatives, by a vote of 58 to 41, adopted the Democratic resolution providing for the postponement of the counting and publishing of the vote for governor until an investigation can be made of charges of fraud in the election. The resolution was adopted by the senate several days ago.

Sage Suit on Trial Again.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The work of securing a jury to try for the third time the case of William L. Laidlaw against Russell Sage for $50,000 damages, resulting from the Norcross bomb explosion, has been completed before Judge Patterson of the supreme court. Ex-Judge Noah Davis opened the case for the plaintiff.

The Ladies' Warehouse union is requested to meet at their hall on Thursday, Jan. 17, as there is business of importance to be transacted.
